

ISWA BEACON 2011 Waste-to-Energy and Packaging Waste in developing countries

Novi Sad, Serbia, 30th November - 2nd December

Second Announcement

ISWA and SeSWA are kindly inviting you to the ISWA Beacon 2011 Conference:

Waste-to-Energy and Packaging Waste in developing countries in the South Eastern European, Middle East and Mediterranean Region

which will be held in Novi Sad, Serbia from 30th November – 2nd December 2011.

ISWA Beacon Conference goal is to promote exchange of knowledge and experience from the field of strategic waste management planning and enhancement of communication between target groups in identifying and solving current environmental problems.

Registration is opened in the Online Registration Section of the Conference Web Site – www.iswabeacon.rs

Main Topics:

- Waste-to-Energy
- Packaging Waste
- Waste Management: Case Studies

Keynote Speakers:

- Jeff Cooper, WEEE
- Hermann Koller, Packaging Waste Management in Europe
- Atilio Savino, Solid Waste Management Strategy of Argentina
- Christian Stiglitz, Waste reduction – dream or reality
- Wissam Gallala, SWEEP-Net
- Efstratios Kalogirou, Waste To Energy: An Integral Part of Sustainable Waste Management
- Tom Frankiewicz, Global Methane Initiative: Opportunity for Advancing Landfill Gas Energy

Registration fee:

- Early registration – until 15th November
 - 170 €
- Late registration – after 15th November
 - 220 €

Contact:

E-mail:

contact@iswabeacon.rs

Web site:

www.iswabeacon.rs

Tel: +381-21-4852458

Organizers:

- ISWA – International Solid Waste Association
- SeSWA – Serbian Solid Waste Association
- Department of Environmental Engineering and Occupational Safety and Health, Faculty of Technical Sciences, University of Novi Sad

Supported by:

- Global Methane Initiative
- Ministry of Environment, Mining and Spatial Planning of Republic of Serbia
- Provincial Secretariat of Urban Planning and Environmental Protection of AP Vojvodina