ISWA
International Solid Waste Association

ISWA – The International Solid Waste Association – is the global, independent and non-profit making association, working in the public interest to promote and develop sustainable waste management. ISWA has members in more than 80 different countries and is the only worldwide association promoting sustainable, comprehensive and professional waste management.

The Association is open to public and private companies, public institutions, individuals and organisations from the scientific community from all over the world working in the field of and interested in waste management.

Being part of ISWA gives you an unparalleled access to international organisations. Through our Working Groups, we help these international organisations form policy by supplying technical papers and opinions regarding waste practices. ISWA is the only worldwide waste organisation, which allows you to network with professionals, companies and institutional representatives.

ISWA is working with its unique mix of members who span the whole waste sector for the promotion and development of sustainable waste management across the world.

With the ISWA Trial Membership you may join ISWA one year for free and receive the following benefits:

- Access to ISWA Member Area
- Access to ISWA's Member Discount Programs in the Member Area
- Free online access to ISWA's high-profile publications "Waste Management & Research" and "Waste Management World"
