ISWA PUBLICATION AWARD 2017

The International Solid Waste Association's Publication Award has been designated to honour the author(s) of a publication, article or book, which is deemed exceptional in its contribution to the field of solid waste management. The awardee will receive a cash prize of Euro 2,500 and a commemorative prize. Please see below requirements to be considered:

To have a wide selection of papers and publications for the ISWA Publication Award 2017, which is to be awarded at the ISWA World Congress, ISWA General Secretariat requests all ISWA Members send in proposals for the 2017 ISWA Publication Award.

A nomination requires a submission to the ISWA General Secretariat of:

1. A copy of the paper, article or publication that qualifies the nominee. The material submitted must be in English, either as published or carefully translated
2. The paper, article or publication must have been published during the previous calendar year or the current calendar year
3. Biographical details of the nominee
4. A completed Nomination Form.

The deadline for the nomination is 12 May 2017, an ISWA Nomination Panel will read and rank the nominations received.

The award will be presented at the 2017 ISWA World Congress in Baltimore MD, United States, 25-27 September 2017.

We are looking forward to receive your contribution by 12 May 2017. Either by e-mail to Communications and Marketing Manager, Daniel Purchase or by hard copy forwarded to the General Secretariat in Vienna.

Please notice that if you send your contribution in hard copy we need you to send 4 copies of the publication/ book/ article.

Kind regards

Hermann Koller,
Managing Director
