

Overarching

The project has delivered substantial results in terms of networking and raising the visibility of ISWA. As a result of the project newly established cooperation can be observed with The German development agency, Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ); Collaborative Working Group on Solid Waste (CWG) which is very active in developing countries; Global Waste Pickers Association and WIEGO; and with the Japanese Institute for Global Environmental Strategies (IGES).

Overarching Report: “Globalisation and Waste Management”, to be published in August 2014

Special Sessions at the ISWA 2013 and 2014 World Congresses

Theme	Result/Deliverables
Megacities, globalisation and waste management	Preparation of a conceptual framework on globalisation and waste A dedicated BEACON conference in cooperation with the Association of Megacities and NEA (National Environmental Agency of Singapore) was held 3-4 July 2012. Study and Report: “Underground solutions for urban waste management – status and perspectives”, 2013 Study and Report: “Globalising Material Flow Analysis (MFA)– Decision Support for Waste Management in Cities based on the Software STAN”, 2013 WM&amp;R article “Globalisation, Megacities and Waste Management”, 2011”
Informal sector as a global stakeholder in SWM	A very successful workshop was organised in June 2011, Buenos Aires which helped change ISWA’s profile towards the informal sector. A report of the Workshop has been prepared. Member of TF represented ISWA at a Clinton Foundation initiative regarding “Viable, Sustainable and Innovative Business Models for the Informal Waste Sector’, and ‘The Closing of Land Fills: Considerations for Sustainable Solutions’, September 2011 WM&amp;R article “InteRa - a new analytical framework and tool for integrating the informal sector recycling in waste and resource management systems in developing countries”, 2012
Theme	Result/Deliverables

Global recycling markets and impacts to sustainable waste management - Addressing waste trafficking as a global challenge	Paper: Waste Trafficking: Challenges and Actions to be Taken, 2013  Study and Report on “Global Plastic Recycling Markets“, to be published in 2014
Lessons learnt from international cooperation on waste management	Study and Report on “A Review of Development Co-operation in Solid Waste Management“, to be published in 2014